Taxicab Business Must Be Regulated

Each week sees the introduction of one or two new taxicab lines, and every color in the rainbow, and some not in it is represented, and then there is the private or individual taxi, some of them looking as if rescued from a scrap heap, are crowding the streets, especially the populous corners and barring private cars from the curb as well as the right of way. It is a notorious fact that drivers of these public cabs are a reckless and irresponsible lot, who carry their personal grievances out by shooting the occasional intruder on their routes. They seem to be selected with a view to getting the most strenuous sluggers and gun men, and woe be to him who causes their anger by daring to drive where they may want the track. So keen is the competition between them that even the passengers in a rival cab are included in their enmity, and it is absolutely dangerous to make a selection in certain parts of the city. Years ago, we used to think the night owl taxicabs were a tough lot, but they were angels compared with the average taxi driver of today. The city must adopt some means of regulating them or it will be necessary to call out the troops to do so. They begin their fights by jamming for positions and then carry it through by wrecking each other and even the innocent private car for revenge in not securing the fare. Englewood at present has enough taxis on the streets to accommodate the travel of the city, yet each day sees a new line or individual out for patronage. Meanwhile, the private driver is crowded and crushed to the side to make room for the reckless and pugilistic public taxi.

Clean Up the Trolley Poles and Lamp Posts

After every political campaign, the trolley poles, lamp posts and dead walls are left in a very ragged condition by the remains of advertising of the candidates and other matter. It should be the duty of candidates, successful or otherwise, to clear up their wreckage, and they should be compelled by law to remove their advertising from the conspicuous places. Nothing looks worse than this ragged paper or muslin floating in the breeze and nothing does more to put a neighborhood in the undesirable class than this slovliness. Owners of bill boards are compelled to keep their paper from flying about, and everyone is supposed to keep their places at least decent, but this class of advertisers don't seem to care a whoop for appearanres, but keep their ugly mugs and passe names floating in the winter blasts as has beens. They should be warned to remove them, or the company that put them up should do so.

Mrs. Clara Moody, 6359 Yale ave., who has been ill, is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Donohue of 6617 Harvard ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to William H. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Wallace of 309 N. Elmwood ave., Oak Park. Miss Donohue is attending the University of Chicago and Mr. Wallace was graduated from Dartmouth.

Greater Sewer System Absolutely Necessary

The greatest handicap under which Englewood and all of the south and west districts of the south side labor, is the lack of adequate sewerage. Most of the sewers now in use were constructed from fifty to thirty years ago, when we were in the village and even prairie era, and a twelve inch sewer was considered ample. Even 63rd st., which even then was acknowledged as the leading cross-town street of the south side, has but a small sewer and in some places two small ones that are so small that even a light rain will flood them and back the water and sewage up into the basements. Halsted st. is in the same condition as well as the residence streets, and no large buildings may be assured of perfect drainage without pumping systems in them. One reason why the Englewood hotel projectors gave up the proplect was that they could not secure even fair drainage for a modern hotel building.

The time is now ripe for all of this district, south, west and east to the Washington Park district, to unite in putting through a system that will last for all time. Every year the building of it is delayed, it adds so much to the cost of construction, and with this handicap we may never hope for development that would come to us if it was removed. The Englewood Commercial and Civic association has asked the co-operation of all improvement and commercial organizations, and those who have not been officially notified will be represented, as the secretary notified all he knew of, but it is no closed shop affair, everyone who has the interest of the district at heart is cordially invited to attend the meetings. We need the boosters all now, and this is the accepted time to get action, and give our neighborhood at least a fair chance to advance.

A Conflict of Authorities

Chief of Police Morgan Collins had just about succeeded in hammering a little decency into the heads of reckless auto drivers, when along came the judges of the municipal courts, who rather with an idea of securing votes, than discharging their judicial duties, declared the chief all wrong, and began discharging the prisoners he arrested for violation of speed and other ordinances. The result is that the death roll has gone up to four a day, the worst ever known in Chicago, from the less than one a day to which the arrests of reckless drivers had reduced it to. Any observer may tell the difference on our streets and Stewart ave., as well as 64th and other thoroughfares have again become speedways instead of for the use of the people. It is ridiculous for any driver to claim that he has perfect control of his car going at a speed of thirty miles an hour, or a mile in two minutes. He knows that he cannot stop within thirty feet, nor can he turn a corner safely at more than eight miles an hour, yet some of them contend in the columns of the daily press that they never hurt anyone at that speed. The proof is in the fact that in nine cases out of ten accidents, the driver has been going at a speed of thirty miles and more, and yet we seldom read of a car driven, say at twenty miles ever hitting a pedestrian, or doing much damage. The twenty mile an hour speed limit in the city should be enforced, and there will be an end to accidents. Now that the election is over, and it will be unnecessary for the judges to four flush the voters, maybe they will see the wisdom of it, and back up Chief Collins in his good work.

Thousands of Dollars

Are no longer necessary to put you into the investor class. Securities can be purchased by making a small deposit followed by regular monthly deposits, which draw interest at the same rate that the bond bears. This partial payment plan will enable salaried people and wage earners, as well as professional people, to build up an invested fund that some day will serve well in building a home or meeting some future need and during its life yield a steady income that will not be subject to fluctuation, due to industrial and business conditions.

The Pup

To be greeted every morning by four dirty little paws,
To have to snatch expiring fowls and fantails from his jaws,
To find in every motor-car a devastating scare,
To be without a single dress that's clean enough to wear,
To rub him dry three times a day from swim and mud and rain,
To have to sacrifice the cat or choke him with his chain,
To get the warmest welcome many hundred times a day—
That's what it means to somebody when Topper comes to stay.

To wear a decent dress that isn't muddied all about,
To hear a motor passing by and not get up and shout,
To see a chicken cross the road without an anxious start,
To watch the kitten drink her milk with even-beating heart,
To have no more to walk for miles at twice the usual pace,
To see no more a wagging tail and friendly, saucy face,
To pass the empty stable with a little stab of pain—
That's what it means to somebody now Topper's gone again.

Winthrop Ames' superb production of "Beggar on Horseback," comes to a close at the Adelphi theater, Chicago, Saturday, November 29. The signing of contracts pledging the show to an opening in Philadelphia on December 1, makes this closing imperative. Such has been the success of the engagement, it could easily be extended another six months. Never in the history of Chicago theatricals has the fantastic, satirical farce been approximated in its drawing qualities. Patronage has come largely from the surrounding country and those living outside of Chicago are urged to attend this performance before November 29.

Worrying About His Title

Putting a Packard nameplate over the radiator of a Ford does not make a Packard of it. It will still continue to perform in the same efficient Ford manner in which it usually performs. It will not take on any Packard qualities.

We have known some men who wanted Packard titles for doing Ford work, and on the other hand, we have known some who carried only Ford titles for a time, but who were really performing their work in true, high-class, Packard style. These latter were not long in coming into their own in the matter of getting the proper name-plate tacked over their radiators.

There are places for Packards and places for Fords. Both perform efficiently in their places. You can't make a Ford run like a Packard nor a Packard car like a Ford by simply changing the name plate. A man's work determines his title.—Meaco.

Children's Book Week at Hiram Kelly Branch

BOOKS—THE BEST GIFT FOR CHILDREN

Children's book week is an annual exhibit every year set aside by publishers and educators to present the best children's books, and to advertise more and better books in the home.

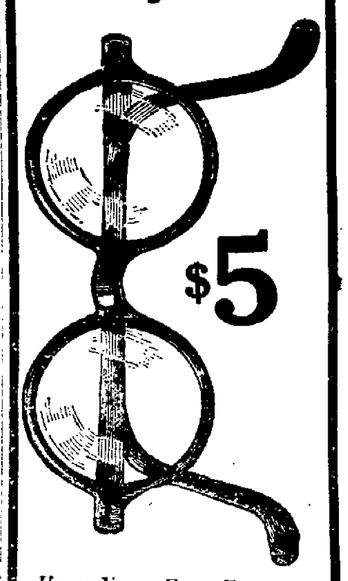
The selection and buying of good books for the home must be done carefully. The reading of good books help to mold character. Just as we prepare the soil and seed for good plants, so should we be as careful in preparing the child's mind from an early age. Childhood is the most impressionable age, and the time when education and forming of good habits should be instilled. As we read the lives of many of our great men and women, we find convincing proof of the power of books read in the home. Parents should feel the responsibility of directing the child in better reading, and make them real book lovers. Education is no longer for the fortunate few, but for all who seek it. The churches, schools and libraries are doing their share in guiding the reading and overcoming the deteriorating influences of bad books.

In buying books for gifts for the children, there are two kinds to overlook. One is the impossible adventure stories, weak and sentimental. Then there is the story presenting the false standards of life and morals. In purchasing books often times the judgment is left to a clerk who does not know books, and will pass anything in cover form off to the anxious parent. Besides the point of considering the kind of a story to buy, as well as the author's standing, children always love attractive books. You must consider the general make up of the book, its binding, print and good illustrations.

It is interesting to note the preference shown in the young boy's and girl's reading. The boy naturally wants to read stories of athletic life, daring adventures, pirate and mystery stories. He also enjoys history and biography, while the girl of today enjoys stories of home and school life. As she grows older she enjoys the simple love stories. The library offers books to meet all interests.

The week of November 10 to 15, will be especially given to help parents and teachers in the selection of good reading. We will have on exhibition the best editions of children's books, with special lists and catalogs of selected books for buying. We are fortunate in having some autographed photos of our esteemed authors to exhibit also this year. We cordially invite all the parents, teachers and friends of the children, as well as the kiddies, to come over to Hiram Kelly branch and see the exhibit. We will have free lists to give, and you will enjoy all the offerings we have to give you.

Defective Eyes



Have Your Eyes Examined Without Charge or Obligation

"Defective eyes" does not always mean defective vision, but it does mean eye-strain, which is responsible for more chronic headaches and nervous ailments than any other cause. Few people realize the great benefit to be derived from properly fitted glasses. An eye examination by a Burke registered optometrist will tell whether or not your eyes need attention.

at $5.00

Your choice of three distinctive styles of glasses, complete with toric lenses (round or leaf shaped), ground to your exact prescription after a careful examination of your eyes. Full guarantee included.

How Much Milk Do You Use Each Day?

Here is what Bernarr MacFadden, famous health authority, says about this important subject in The Miracle of Milk: "I am willing to go on record as stating . . . ninety per cent of all malnutrition among children everywhere could be cured if two quarts of milk a day were supplied each child.

"I heartily agree with Dr. Graham Lusk when he states that no family of five can afford to purchase a pound of meat until it has first bought at least three quarts of milk."

Taxes Up To Voters

If taxes be burdensome, as they assuredly are, the people have only themselves to blame, for the remedy lies in an intelligent use of the ballot on election days.

Determine before voting how a candidate stands on the tax question. Pin him right down to definite explanations. Taxpayers are being bled white to support numerous and useless boards and commissions, many of them duplicating work to effect a pretense of necessity, and created in the first instance as "lying-in hospitals" for faddists or political parasites.

The taxpayers have a right to relief from such tax burdens which have grown heavier and heavier until to many they have become almost confiscatory.

Take for example the state taxes assessed against the Southern Pacific in the single state of California for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, amounting to $8,169,067. This means that this corporation in paying its state taxes only must pay into the treasury of the state of California more than $23,000 every day.

Some people imagine that because a corporation pays it they are not concerned, but every dollar of such taxes paid by a railroad is indirectly paid by the users of the railroad.

Taxes are included in the cost of transportation and are part of price paid for fruit, livestock, lumber, shoes, suit of clothes, or groceries, and the local dealer tacks a little on for good measure to cover his own taxes.

Therefore, taxes of any kind, either direct or indirect, fall on the consumer and that means everybody. Everybody is concerned with tax reform and should see to it that only such men are elected to public office as stand for consistent economy in the administration of public affairs.

Phillips' Wonderful New Furniture Store

It is an accepted fact that when Sam Phillips starts anything, it goes to completion as a success, and this has been verified by his latest undertaking in the building of a four-floor entire furniture emporium 50x125 feet, on his property at 6614-16 Halsted st. and the entire four floors are now occupied by a fine new stock of everything that goes to furnish and equip a home, be it cottage or mansion, from cellar to garret. A feature in addition to the furniture and house furnishings, is the Wurlitzer piano department, a musical department that carries everything that is best in the piano or phonograph line; also we should mention the big basement, which is devoted entirely to dishes, cooking utensils, glassware and everything pertaining to the preparation and preservation of foods. The rug department is complete in foreign and domestic weaves and in fact the entire stock is one that it is a pleasure to inspect. Mr. Phillips and his corps of assistants will be only too happy to show you through and everyone in Englewood is invited to call and see what Phillips has done for Englewood merchandising.

In conjunction with the opening of the Phillips Furniture company's new store at 6614-16 Halsted st. this week the firm will innovate a bus service for the convenience of its patrons. A motor truck on which is mounted one of the latest types of bus bodies will operate continuously on Halsted st. during the day and the evening that the store is open. The northern terminus of the line will be at 59th st., while the southern boundary touched by the bus will be 79th st.

W. C. T. U. Convention

The Golden Jubilee convention of the National Woman's Temperance union will be held in Medinah temple, November 14-19, and will be packed with interesting things from beginning to end. Except Saturday and Sunday, there will be three sessions daily, beginning respectively, at 9 a. m., 2 p. m., and 7 p. m. The speakers are brought, not only from many places in our own land, but some of them come from across the seas. One notable feature of the convention will be a pageant, illustrating the work of the organization during the last fifty years. It will be presented by members of the school of expression of Northwestern university, and is given in loving memory of Frances E. Willard, who was the first dean of women of the university.

Saturday afternoon and evening will be spent by the delegates in visiting national headquarters in Evanston, and other places of interest.

Two meetings will be held in Medinah temple on Sunday. A mass meeting at 3 p. m., to be addressed by Mrs. Rachel Don, W. C. T. U. of New Zealand and others, and a young people's rally, also with noted speakers.

Except the pageant, the meetings are free to every one who wishes to attend, and every one is welcome.

Both clubs are looking forward to an interesting winter with prospects of giving a play in the offing.

Come and Hear Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt

At the Midway Masonic temple, the evening of November 20, will occur an event of unusual interest to the south side, bringing together men and women from all parts of Chicago and its suburbs.

The Sixth Ward branch of the Illinois League of Women Voters, jointly with the state organization, have arranged a banquet at which Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will be the guest of honor and principal speaker, taking for her subject, "Men, Women and Politics."

Mrs. Catt has rare intelligence and has gained through her years of work for suffrage, the admiration and confidence of women and men, both at home and abroad. Even those who believe themselves fairly familiar with her achievements may not fully appreciate that for thirteen years she was president of the National American Woman's Suffrage association, prior to the granting of suffrage to women; that for over twenty years she held the presidency of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, and is at present honorary and acting president of the Pan-American Association for the Advancement of Women. She is famous the world over and has spoken in every continent and in nearly every country.

By great good fortune three other distinguished women will be guests at this banquet: Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the governor of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Mabel Willibrandt, assistant aatorney general of the United States, and Miss Katherine Ludington of Connecticut, one of the officers of the National League of Women Voters. It will be interesting and a privilege to come in touch with these women and hear them speak.

Tables are being secured by various clubs, the Kiwanis, Lions and Business Men's clubs, Women's Federated clubs, Mothers' Round Table, Parent-teacher associations, W. C. T. U., local banks, study clubs, league branches within the city, also from Wilmette, Evanston, Palos Park, Oak Park, Downers Grove, Paw Paw, Mr. Danforth of the Woodlawn Courier, and Mrs. Mabel Reinecke, collector of internal revenue.

The Midway Masonic temple is located at Cottage Grove and 61st sts. Time: Thursday, November 20, at 6:30 p. m. $2.25 per plate.

Make your reservations early by telephoning Mrs. Forrest Moulton, Midway 5171, or Mrs. Howard Ray, Midway 2330.

Serving by Growing

EVERY time an installer signs for a telephone instrument at the stock room counter and starts out for the home or office of a new subscriber, where he is to connect it with the Bell System, he is serving you.

Each new telephone added to the system puts you in potential contact with the users of this new instrument. Every new installation, anywhere, increases the scope of your service; makes your telephone more valuable to you.

Since the invention of the telephone in 1876, many improvements in equipment and in operating methods have combined to increase the value of telephone service to the individual subscriber. Not only has it been made possible to hear clearly over the telephone, and at far greater distances, but also to be promptly connected with a larger number of subscribers—for the telephone serves by growing.

The number of Bell System telephones is growing at the rate of about three quarters of a million a year—a fact which at once illustrates the increasing value of telephone service to existing subscribers and its increasing acceptance by the public as indispensable to modern life.

Fall Forward

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Everybody makes mistakes. The people who succeed are not those who make none, but those who learn by their mistakes. And making mistakes is about the only way anybody learns anything. The child never really learns that the stove is hot until he burns his fingers. The people who fail are those who become discouraged over their mistakes. They lose heart, and when you lose heart the best way to get over it is to quit doing wrong and begin to do right. It does no good to weep and despair. We progress simply by watching our mistakes and correcting them. Walking is merely a succession of falls. If we fall fet us fall forward. And get up and try it again.

Passage of $100,000,000 Road Bond Issue Insures Large State Highway Program for 1925

On the face of incomplete returns, it appears that the $100,000,000 state hard road bond issue has passed with a majority on the proposition of over one million, and a constitutional majority of approximately 250,000. A few days will be required to determine the final vote. Colonel C. R. Miller, director of the department of public works and buildings, and Frank T. Sheets, chief highway engineer, in commenting on the present highway situation, made the following statement:

"The passage of this measure will insure that Illinois will continue to construct highways at the same world's record breaking rate which has enabled the state to surpass all highway construction records for each of the past three years. During 1924, Illinois will complete approximately 1200 miles, which is more than double the mileage built by any other state, and it is entirely probable that our state will build approximately 1500 miles during the year 1925."

To Hold "No Profit" Festival

The Normal Park Business Men's association have sprung a new one for their fall festival, to be held from December 15 to 20, and are making preparations to hold a festival such as never before attempted in this part of the town. During this festival the merchants in the district will hold postively "no profit" sale to attract attention to their places of business, and many will give souvenirs and prizes of various sorts. The merchants will decorate their stores as well as Wentworth ave. from 68th to 74th st., and 69th st. from the Rock Island tracks to State st., and have special illumination and possibly a number of parades at different times. Out of a membership of 100 the action of the committee was endorsed by nearly eighty and was practically unanimous. It was also decided to make a donation to the Parker high school football team and encourage them in their campaign for the pennant. This hustling organization meets every Monday at Major Con Kelly's parlors, 6915 Wentworth ave., and the amount of good work they are doing is a sure-fire boost for their part of Englewood.

Sixteen Million Cars In 1925?

Three hundred motor cars were registered in the United States in 1895. In 1925, thirty years after, the number will be in excess of 16,000,000.

This is not a prophecy, but a continuation of a table of registrations. In the ten years from 1913 to date, the table of motor registrations in hundred thousands, reads as follows: 12, 17, 24, 35, 51, 61, 73, 91, 104, 123.

It is hardly prophecy to say that the next two years will show figures of 140 and 160 hundred thousand, or 14,000,000 and 16,000,000 cars registered.

It is inevitable that these cars have more and more good roads to run upon. If this number of wheeled vehicles congest our few hundred thousand miles of good roads, it is obvious that a greater number will compel more and more hard-surface highways.

Opposition to good roads comes from two sources; the ignorance of taxpayers, who think that the bond issue or the road tax represents outgo, instead of the means of increased income, and politicians, who desire "pork barrel" national legislation in order to get votes, rather than money to be spent upon roads.

Both classes of opposition are slowly but surely being steam rolled out of existence with the automobile in the role of steam roller.

How many cars in 1935?

President Calvin Coolidge and
Our Lady of the White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear President and Mrs. Coolidge---

My highest congratulations come from my husband and son and myself, and may God spare you your health and strength to be our beloved President for many a year. You are a noble, brave, and self-made man like our deceased ex-President Wilson, one that will see justice for all. You are for the people and believe me, the people will be for you. I am American on my father's side eighteen generations and on my husband's side are Americans on both sides and he is the great grandson of Highland Chief Baron Barr of Pacley, Scotland. A grandson of Chief Barr's daughter, Amelia Barr, by his first wife. She came to America when seven years old. She came to America with a neighbor family by name of McPherson, who looked after her until she married a Frenchman by name of Lafayette Soule and came West to Illinois. Amelia Barr had to leave her mother's castle in Pacley, Scotland, on account of a cruel stepmother who made her carry her stepbrother around and would make chalk marks on the little brother's shoes so to see if Amelia Barr, my husband's grandmother, would carry him or make him walk.

The father would feed her under the table so her stepmother would not send her out or scold her and all she took across the sea with her was a Pacley shawl which my son, Howard Burd Gray, was wrapped in, when an infant, by his grandmother, Amelia Barr's daughter, Mary Elizabeth Gray, my husband's mother. My husband's father's mother was a descendant of Lady Ursula of England, and my husband's father's father was a descendant of Lady Jane Grey of England, and thru a family quarrel my husband's father's descendants changed the spelling of their name to Gray.

We are both Americans and feel it our duty to loyally respect and back up our Presidents, Governors, Senators, and all great men of our country, this beautiful U. S. A. My husband is also a descendant of General Lafayette of France. My husband's grandfather, Lafayette Soule, was a direct descendant of the famous general. A great man was he to Uncle Sam, and his descendants must travel forward for the love and honor of our country. My husband feels the same. His heart goes out to "Old Glory" and is proud when I step in front to help to bring the biggest victory to our great American President and may your footsteps all thru your life be filled with health, wealth, honor, and happiness, and may you remain our President for many years and be backed by all Americans.

We are sending our love and best wishes to you both, and son.

My father, George Washington Burd, was born in Hartford, Conn., Sullivan County, and was a neighbor and bosom friend to Lafayette Soule. In my father's family were great men of honor and title, here and across the sea. My father and his brothers (my uncles) were veterans of the Civil War -- Harvey, Frank and George. They had two sisters (my aunts) Elmira, Ezepra. Their mother (my grandmother) was a descendant of great French title -- the Marquettes of Paris.

In words we can not express our sympathy to you for the loss of your noble son; our hearts went out to you in your hours of grief.

Yours most respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. Burd Gray and son Howard

Governor Len Small,
Springfield, Ill.

Dear Governor---

It is with pleasure I sit down to write a few lines to you. A great hero you have been in your post of honor, and believe me I keep my promise I made in a letter to you when you were in sorrow and the one that loved you better than all on earth you had laid away to rest. But her dear soul remained with you night and day and helped you to step forward again in a victory, so bravely she guided you to be our brave Governor again -- one that was true to old and young, the rich and the poor. That is why I gave Friday, Saturday, and Monday to speak, for I felt it more my duty to guide every nationality right, and to do so, I felt it my duty to speak for you, our Governor, and for President Coolidge and all the rest of our high men of honor; and I am one proud American who has the pleasure of seeing the greatest victory for our Governor and President, won. We are wishing you health, wealth and greater prosperity, and to remain our Governor for many a year. My husband and son join me in sending you our best wishes and congratulations.

Most truly yours,

Mrs. Burd Gray,
Howard L. Gray,
Howard B. Gray, Jr.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

THE SHORT CUT

The way to success
Has been outlined, I guess,
By hundreds of thousands of men.
"Rise early and work;"
"Stay late; never shirk!"
You've heard it again and again.

Now I shouldn't say
That way doesn't pay
To get to the top of the heap;
This much I do know,
The process is slow;
You're old ere the profits you reap.

But here's a short cut
To get out of the rut,
To cast off monotony's yoke.
With speed you'll advance,
And your pay will enhance
If you laugh when the boss cracks a joke

Some girls marry in haste and repent in a cheap boarding house.

If the good die young, it is up to the oldest inhabitant to explain.

A jewel of a cook may be a paste diamond after all.

If you want to reach the poor house you may do it by keeping straight on "easy" street.

Americans are people who feel rich because they charge one another so much.

It is impossible for an all around politician to be on the square.

The rolling stone may not gather any moss, but it does acquire a wonderful polish.

Fear of old age comes only to those who have not learned how to live.

If your enemy is too big to lick, you had better forgive him.

He—"Belle is a good looking girl, isn't she?" She—"Yes, but even an old barn looks good with paint on it."

Mr. Pugh—When are you going to pay for that sewing machine we sold you? Mrs. Brown—Pay for it? Why the salesman said it would soon pay for itself.

A man's importance nowadays is often measured by the number of tubes in his set.

"My rose," he said, as he pressed her velvet cheek to his. "My cactus," she said, as she encountered his stubble.

A public benefactor would be the man that invents or discovers a lawn grass that will grow thick and inch high and then quit.

Bride—Henry, dear, when we reach our destination let us try to avoid giving the impression that we are just married. Henry—All right, Bettie, you can carry the suit cases.

A salesman struck a river town where the water was very muddy and asked of the hotel clerk: "Do you folks bathe in this water?" "Oh, no." "Then what good is it?" "It has its uses. You think you need a bath. You draw a tubful of mud. Then you see you don't need a bath."

Here's the Idea

When the twins, "Cynic" and "Crony," agreed that there was "nothing new under the sun," they had reckoned without the prowess of the women who are out after money for their pet charity. Money is needed to run that unique and well known old people's home called Oakhaven, and so the ladies, "bless 'em," evolved a new fundamental idea.

The usual bazaar principle, flagrant, though sugar-coated, has been to get as much coin from the masculine attendants as pretty girls could coax with their smiles and flowers and mystery packages. Said the Oakhaven ladies: "Let us give our nice men something they really want; something they can wear themselves, or use; something stunning in haberdashery, for instance. Let us so arrange it that the ladies will buy for "friend" husband, brother and father first, before all the dollars are spent for gifts for the wives' relatives. Let us have such distinguished cravats, such long-distance golf balls, such excellent cigars and food that the gentlemen cannot resist.

Different and interesting psychology, isn't it?

This unique temptation is to be given at Englewood Masonic temple, 6730 Wentworth ave., on November 20 and 21, all day and evening. Of course there will also be beguiling salesgirls, mystery packages, fortune telling, a genuine Santa Claus, yum-yum luncheons, delicious dinners and all the accessories of a fascinating Oakhaven bazaar.

Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, the chairman, has delightful plans to make everyone happy. "Friend" husband will like it.

MYRTLE DEAN CLARK.

Catholic Daughters of America

"Kathleen," the two-act musical comedy to be presented by McHale-Englewood court, Catholic Daughters of America, on Wednesday and Thursday evening, November 19 and 20, at the Englewood K. of C. club house, 6321 Harvard ave., promises to be the biggest "hit" of the season as this year's show is "bigger and better" than ever. Tickets are being disposed of very rapidly and as the Englewood club house has a limited capacity, it behooves those who have not as yet secured their tickets to do so at once. Tickets may be procured from any of the members or from Mrs. Mary H. Kelley, grand regent of the court, 6915 Wentworth ave. The show is an annual affair of the court, the proceeds of which is used to spread Christmas cheer among the needy of the neighborhood.

Miss Lucille Jacques is playing the role of "Kathleen," assisted by Miss Elsa Collings, Elizabeth O'Brien, Margaret Hackett and Messrs. Frank Hauck, Tim Dunne, Howard Wilbur, Ray Dundon, Ed McCann and Francis Steele, together with a male sextette and a bevy of pretty and attractive girls singing and dancing. A special attraction will be a chorus of youngsters between the ages of 4 and 8, staging a very clever song and dance number. Subscription is 75 cents. Curtain 8:15 p. m.

Entertained at Des Plaines

Mrs. Charles E. Modine, 6512 Ross ave., Mrs. Prudence Keltner, and daughters of 451 W. 64th st.; Mrs. Florence Pangburn and daughter, Mrs. Mae Balintine and grandchildren of 7300 Harvard ave., motored to Des Plaines, Ill., last Thursday, where they were guests of Mrs. O. W. Wildey and daughter, Mrs. R. L. Mann, at luncheon. Mrs. Wildey and daughter are former Englewood residents.

Commercial Association to Have a "Get Together" Banquet

The luncheon of the Englewood Commercial and Civic association held Tuesday at George B. Dow's was a very enthusiastic one and quite well attended. Abe Mindes furnished the Kosher luncheon and it was surely enjoyed by all. The roll call showed a splendid representation of all businesses on 63rd st. Mr. Hughes reported for the sewer committee that a meeting was to be called of all southwest side organizations to take action for a complete adequate system to cover all of this territory. The public hearing of a minor sewer system will be held Friday and the committee will be represented. Encouraging remarks were made by John McClun, A. H. Whitley, Van V. Lain, Wm. F. Monahan, Frank P. Barkey and other. A committee composed of Frank M. Fulton, Van V. Lain and Gerald E. Sullivan was appointed to arrange for a "get together" banquet and meeting to be held soon, that will include in its scope all of central Englewood and be an event to be remembered. President Penhallegon will assist the committee, and the affair will probably occur very early in January.

An Omission Corrected

In the different published accounts of the Old Settlers' reunion at the Masonic temple October 28, through some mischance one of the best features of the program was omitted, being that of the Englewood Temple chorus, which rendered three very fine selections under the efficient directorship of C. Godon Wedertz. Their excellent music was appreciated and well received, and the Old Settlers are grateful to them for their voluntary service.

Lions Club to Give "The Mikado"

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, November 25 and 26, the Lions club of Englewood will stage the popular comic opera, "The Mikado," at the Marlowe theater, assisted by a ten-piece orchestra. Over 500 tickets have been distributed to the Protestant Children's home, Sisters of Mercy high school and the Open Door Day nursery, who will receive half of the proceeds of the tickets they sell. The price in all cases to be one dollar each. The opera is to be given by a Parker Glee club cast, under the direction of Miss Mabel Daly. The wives of members of the Lions club will furnish home made candies to be sold during the performance. After the charities have received their share of the proceeds, the balance will be retained by the club for their activities during 1925. The Lions are a wide-awek, hustling lot of boosters and it is safe to say that their show will be a great success, as they are bending every effort to make it the social occasion of the season.

Sarah Hackett Stevenson Memorial Bazaar

The annual bazaar of the Sarah Hackett Stevenson Memorial will be held at the Parkway hotel, Thursday and Friday, November 13 and 14, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Cards and mah jongg each day at 2 p. m. Many of our local clubs are interested in the work of this splendid institution, and it is hoped the bazaar will be well patronized. The Englewood Woman's club, the Hamilton Park Woman's club, the Ridge Woman's club and others are interested in the home and also in the bazaar.

New Y. M. C. A. Under Way

As announced in last week's issue of the Times, work was begun on the excavation for the handsome new building of the Y. M. C. A. at 66th st. and Union ave., Saturday last. General chairman, William B. Wanzer, pulled the throttle that set the big excavating machine in motion and a yard or more of earth was lifted. The pastors of a number of Englewood churches were present including Dr. Claude C. Travis of the Englewood M. E. church, Rev. C. G. Kindred of the Christian church, Rev. J. M. De Lacy of Thoburn M. E. church and others. Remarks were made commending the good work by different members of the committee including Col. "Bob" Barbee, Fred Rathje, Harry Baumgartner, Kenneth F. Beers executive secretary and others. The excavation will be completed in a few weeks and work will soon be commenced on the structure which it is hoped to have completed in the fall of 1925.

Rev. Charles Kesler Resigns From Covenant Baptist Church

The announcement that Rev. Charles Kesler, pastor of Covenant Baptist church has tendered his resignation, will be met with sorrow and regret by all Englewood, as Mr. Kesler is one of the most popular pastors in Englewood. He has been with this church for the past ten years and his work here has been good. He has accepted a call to Temple Baptist church of Detroit, Mich., where he will be assistant pastor to Rev. Albert Johnson, head of the department of religious education, a position for which he is eminently qualified and fitted. If Mr. Kesler's resignation is accepted he will leave Englewood about December 1.

Englewood High Parent-Teacher Association

The Englewood high school Parent-teacher association will meet Tuesday, November 18, at 2:30, in the community room. Here will be music, and a very short business meeting. At 3 o'clock, Mr. William B. Owen of the Chicago Normal school, will speak. While his subject has not been announced, his talk will be sure to interest parents and teachers alike. There will be a social hour after the meeting.

The third Tuesday of each month has been chosen as the regular meeting day of the association.

She—"Isn't it glorious to wake up early in the morning and hear the leaves whispering outside your windows?" He—"Its all right to hear the leaves whisper, but I can't stand hearing the grass mown."

Union Thanksgiving Services

The union Thanksgiving service of the Englewood churches will be held at the Nazarene church. Dr. Hancon of the Pilgrim Congregational church will preach the sermon.

The Spirit of Armistice Day

Last Tuesday, November 11, the people of the United States observed Armistice Day. This date was also observed by the citizens of many other nations.

We, here in the United States, have rightly paid tribute to those brave men and women who, during the years 1917 and 1918, so loyally served this country and civilization. We should honor the commanders in the field and all of those heroic and unselfish people who, abroad and at home, gave unstintingly in the fight for freedom and democracy.

We make no apologies for having entered the war. While we hope for peace and will do our best in hastening the economic recovery of all the world war participants, we should, nevertheless, be proud of the fact that the despotic rule of a coterie of ambitious leaders in Germany was brought to an end. The German people, as well as those of the Allied nations and of America, should rejoice because of this.

We are today standing upon the threshold of a grander and nobler era than had ever been known before. The future is in our own hands. With the true Armistice Day spirit it will be secure.

Memorial Service for Dr. Carl Langer

A memorial service in honor of Dr. Carl Langer will be held at Englewood hospital at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Langer died at his home in Palos Park, Ill., October 30, after a brief illness. He was a member of the surgical department of the hospital staff, of which he was also a former president. For many years he had been a member of the board of trustees of Englewood hospital.

Born in Hornberg, Germany in 1866, Dr. Langer received his degree in medicine from Northwestern university in 1892, and after serving an internship in Mercy hospital he engaged in private practice in Chicago, specializing in surgery. Dr. Langer had been continuously associated with Englewood hospital in the dual capacity of staff and board member and during his period of service much of his energy had been devoted to the development of the activities of the hospital.

The program of the memorial meeting will consist of addresses by representatives of the board of trustees and staff of the hospital, and of the Chicago Medical society and by Dr. R. A. White, pastor of the People's Liberal church.
